

Crisis Services for American Indian & Alaskan Natives

Toll-Free Crisis Line

1-800-584-3578

Crisis Services Professionals are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to speak on the phone with anyone experiencing a crisis due to mental illness and/or substance use issues.

Crisis outreach services are available to everyone in Island, San Juan, Skagit, Snohomish, and Whatcom Counties

All Tribal Members in the North Sound Region are eligible for Crisis Services from the North Sound Behavioral Health Administrative Services Organization.

Mobile Crisis Outreach Teams are available to help those in the community experiencing a crisis due to mental illness or addiction. They provide assistance in community settings such as homes and schools. They are professionals trained to evaluate a person for safety, de-escalate a crisis, and provide information and education. They also refer people to community behavioral health services for additional support.

Traditional healing services are provided by North Sound Tribes. For a full list of tribes and contact information visit nsbhaso.org/tribal-resources.

Persons who need help from an interpreter or need to have information translated into their own language can get help free of charge by calling 1-800-684-3555.

301 Valley Mall Way, Ste 110,
Mt. Vernon, WA 98273

Customer Service: 800.684.3555

Business Line: 360.416.7013

www.nsbhaso.org

Washington State
Health Care Authority

Empowering individuals and families to improve their health and well-being.

Scan this QR code
to visit our website ▶

